Required Medi-Cal Benefit for Pregnant Women

Source: <http://www.cdph.ca.gov> Fact Sheet MO-07-0006

The Comprehensive Perinatal Services Program (CPSP) provides a wide range of culturally competent services to Medi-Cal pregnant women, from conception through 60 days postpartum. In addition to standard obstetric services, women receive enhanced services in the areas of nutrition, psychosocial, and health education. The Legislature enacted CPSP in 1984 in response to the OB Access Project, which found that a comprehensive approach reduced both low birth weight rates and health care costs in women and infants.

CPSP became a Medi-Cal benefit in 1987. Medi-Cal providers who provide services to pregnant women may apply to become a CPSP provider. Medi-Cal Managed Health Care Plans are required to provide access to CPSP services for pregnant Medi-Cal eligible recipients.

Physician Referral Process

1. A request for total OB care falls under the auto approval policy and procedure.
2. Upon receiving Total OB Care request, provider shall ensure that a Pregnancy Notification Report (PNR) is performed and that CPSP services are offered.
3. CPSP certified OBs can complete the PNR form and remit to the state for payment.
4. If not certified, OB provider shall direct patient to a CPSP provider. A CPSP Directory may be found on the provider portal on <http://www.cdph.ca.gov>.
5. Portal authorization requests for CPSP are not required.
6. CPSP provider education and CPSP form copies will be available via provider portal.
7. If the member refuses to participate, provider is required to document the refusal in the member's medical record and provide the member with the following:
 - a. Pregnancy education materials
 - b. Breastfeeding education and materials
 - c. A referral to WIC and other community resources, as needed.
8. Prospect Medical Management will call OB providers monthly to confirm that the member was offered CPSP, document member acceptance/refusal and request a copy of the completed PNR.
9. For CPSP Training to become CPSP Certified, please contact:
 - a. Carol Phillips, PHN 213-639-6426 cphillips@ph.lacounty.gov
 - b. Jenny Morales, PHN 213-639-6437 jmorales@ph.lacounty.gov
